Exciting day for

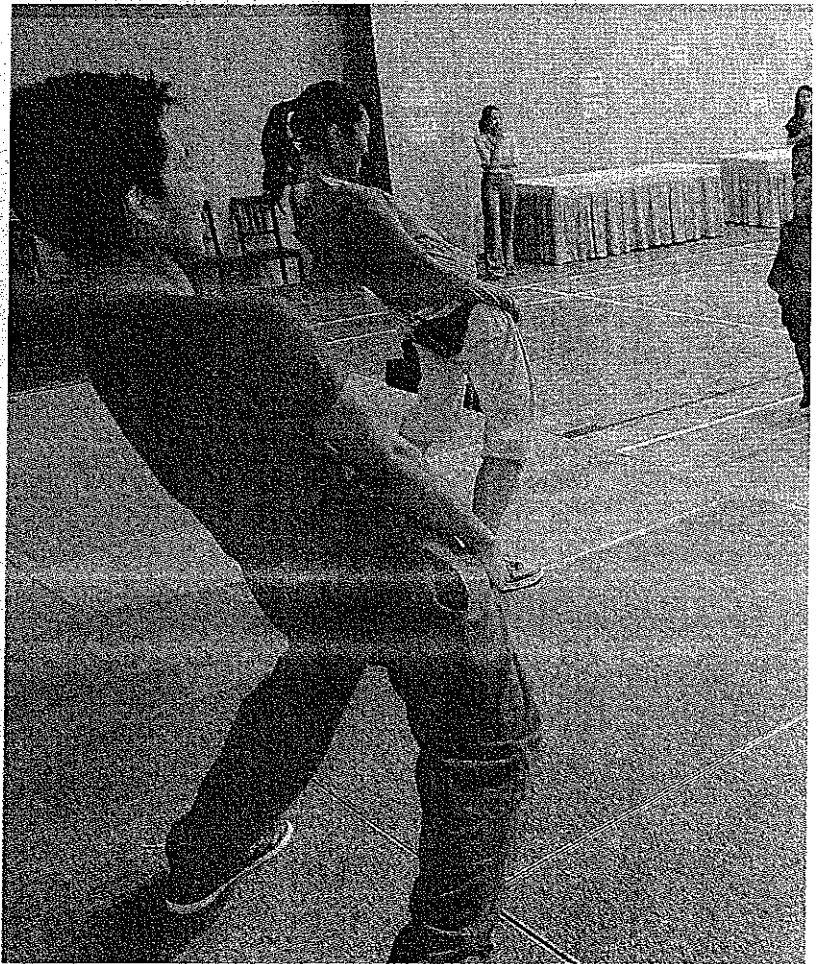

PETALING JAYA : How would you like to pick up some nifty dance moves from world-renowned dancer/choreographer Tony Stone, who has worked with, among others, Britney Spears, Justin Timberlake, Ricky Martin, Beyonce, Jennifer Lopez and Christina Aguilera?

Then mark Jan 7, 2012, on your calendar for a day of fun — and get twice the satisfaction at the same time by helping to boost animal welfare in Malaysia.

Be prepared for non-stop activities within a 12-hour marathon of dance, fitness and sports, aimed at raising awareness and funds for animal welfare.

You will get a rare chance to learn not only from Stone, but also from professional dance instructor Sabrina Saw and other skilled dance masters. Alternatively, take some fitness and sports-based classes from experts in these fields.

Project Malaysia", is presented by Saw in association with the British International School of Kuala Lumpur (BISKL). It is supported by the Department of Veterinary Services and the Ministry of Agriculture and Agro-based Industries.

All proceeds will benefit non-governmental organisations including PAWS, Society for the Prevention of Cruelty To Animals (SPCA-Selangor) Kucing Terbiar & Anjing Jalanan, Animal Care, Paws Mission, HOPE Save

A Stray, Independent Pet Rescuers, Malaysian Dogs Deserve Better and Zoo Negara.

The event, which will take place from 11am to 11pm at BISKL, will feature well-known dance, fitness and sports personalities from Hong Kong, Australia, the United States, United Kingdom, South Africa, Singapore and Malaysia.

"By getting active, we aim to utilise the power of positivity and raise awareness for the cause in a healthy and exciting way," said Saw at a press conference at the school recently.

"The master classes are open to all levels and ages. The wide range of activities include a Tottenham Hotspur football clinic, yoga and core Strength for Golfers, Les Mills programmes and freestyle dance, as well as fitness programmes like cardio dance, video dance, hip-hop, salsa, jazz, tribal and Hi-Lo."

Football fanatics can participate in various futsal games, join in Tottenham Hotspur football talks, and participate in what organisers hope to be Asia's Largest Football Card Montage; to be created by using football trading cards.

There will be a carnival-like atmosphere on the big day, with face-painters, ball-jugglers and clowns entertaining the spectators, rock climbing at 50 sen per climb, booths selling all kinds of F&B items and other merchandise, and a silent auction of hotel and golf packages and other items.

Sales of spectator and all-access passes will commence in November at selected outlets and online at Petfinder.my.

Spectator passes costing RM15 will allow entrance to everything except master classes and performances with the option of re-entry throughout the day.

All-access passes are for those who want to take part in all the master classes, as well as all other activities. There are options for taking one class, two classes, three classes or an unlimited number of classes at RM25, RM35, RM45 and RM55 respectively.

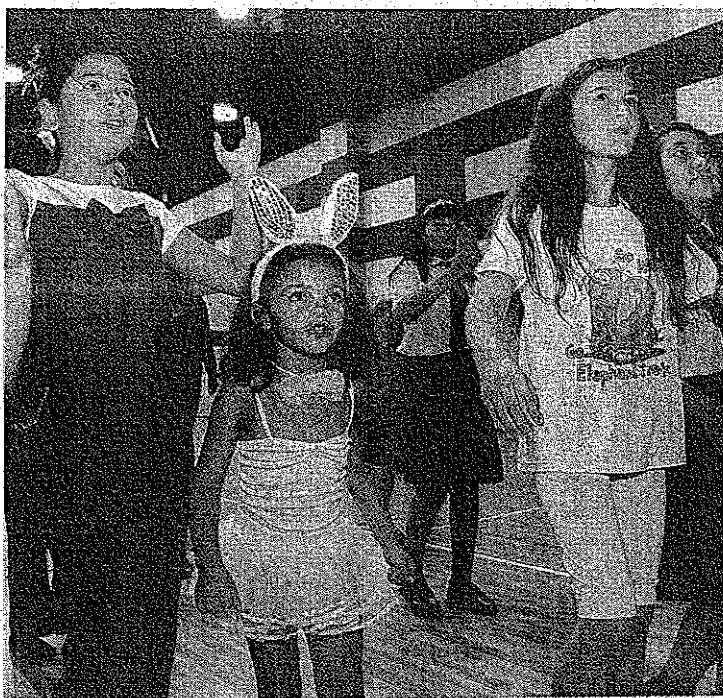

At the press conference, Saw showed off her own dance moves dancing along with a group of BISKL students before getting members of the audience to dance along.

Also present were Robert Teasdale, chief executive officer of Football Focus Asia, Adam Johnson, deputy headmaster of the BISKL, Andy Koh, founder of Petfinder.my and others.
